Development of MOU Between – NOBLE & Amateur Athletic Union

Why AAU?

“Sports for All, Forever”

The Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) services communities throughout the US and are expanding abroad. AAU and PAL are both not-for-profit organizations engaging community youth and local law enforcement in sports activities and competitive events. In fact, when a computer search is generated one can read of many PALs participating in AAU Sports Competitions and Events. The major difference between the two entities is that AAU offers an opportunity to provide this sports engagement in multiple arenas. AAU can use parks, school gyms, and additional appropriate locations to provide this opportunity.

AAU also provides membership “up to $50,000.00 in sports accident insurance when participating in AAU licensed events.”

The flexibility of location has helped to ensure sports are available in all communities. “Through participation in AAU sports programs, athletes acquire the mental acuity, emotional maturity and social tools necessary to succeed in the classroom and in the world beyond.” Currently the NYPD is fostering a robust and expanding relationship with AAU providing sports activities in Patrol Borough Brooklyn North. The NOBLE NY Chapter recently collaborated in a sports event held August 2018, in the Brownsville area of Brooklyn.
