Greetings President Bumpers, NOBLE Executive Board, and Staff,

Spring has certainly sprung with demonstrations of our continued, and renewed spirit of leadership and volunteerism!

Since our last meeting in Houston, Texas, for our NOBLE National Executive Board Meeting, and Chief William R. Bracey Winter CEO Symposium, we have worked towards the continued goal “to ensure equity in the administration of justice in the provision of public service to all communities, and to serve as the conscience of law enforcement by being committed to justice by action.” Region Vice-Presidents have hosted Gala Events that showcased the achievements of Community and NOBLE Members, NOBLE Retirees have been honored, Training Conferences have been thoughtfully prepared to provide relevant courses to those in attendance, and Business Meetings have demonstrated a voice of NOBLE Members eager for a Leadership that will ensure NOBLE’s continued forward trajectory. In 2018, Region V Vice-President Frederick Thomas said it best through a Training Workshop titled “Back to Basics.” This year several Regional Training Conferences provided Leadership Workshops, Assessment Centre Workshops, and in one instance the seed was planted by Dr. Steve Perry, of EdChoice, for NOBLE to open its own schools. Yes, that’s correct schools with an “s”. Although there is already so much work to be done, “to whom much is given, much is expected.” Let us continue to be about our Father’s Business through NOBLE, energized, poised, ever mindful of our roles, always in positive forward motion!

Thank you for the opportunity to serve.

Sincerely,

Michelle Tégé

Thank you very much to all the Region Vice-Presidents who provided great training at their conferences, and for permitting space for me to greet the participants during their Business Meeting. A special THANK YOU! to Region VI VP Waters, who hosted me as her Guest during the NOBLE Southern California Chapter 19th Annual Achiever's Award Banquet, and Region IV VP Goss-Andrews, who provided an opportunity for the local Chapter Representative to stand in my stead and share a greeting with the attendees, as I had an early flight back home on the day of their Business Meeting; Thank you again to Sgt. Assata Olugbala, for standing in for the Chicago Chapter Associate Member Representative Nichelle Fraction, who had lost her voice from all the weekend activities.
